

The Compass

The most suitable compass for Mountain Skills is a Silva Type 4

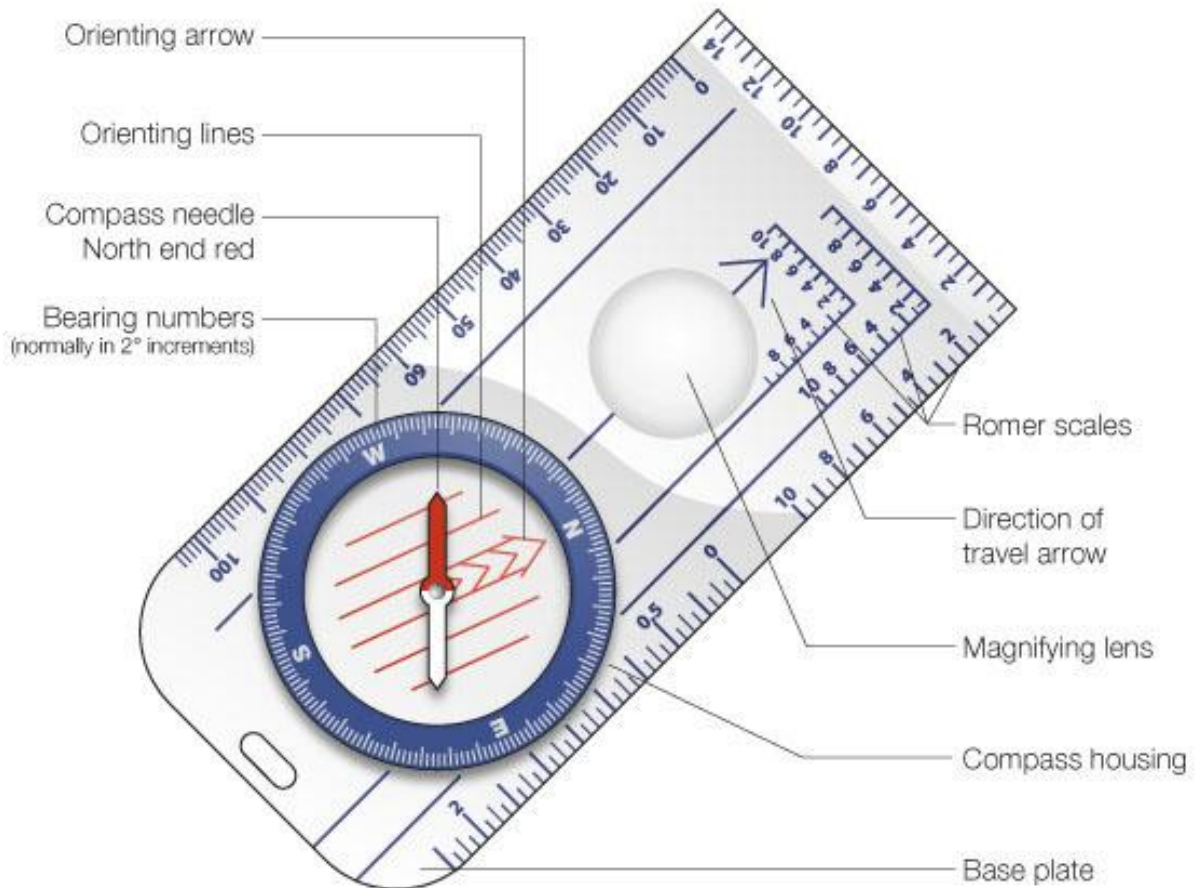

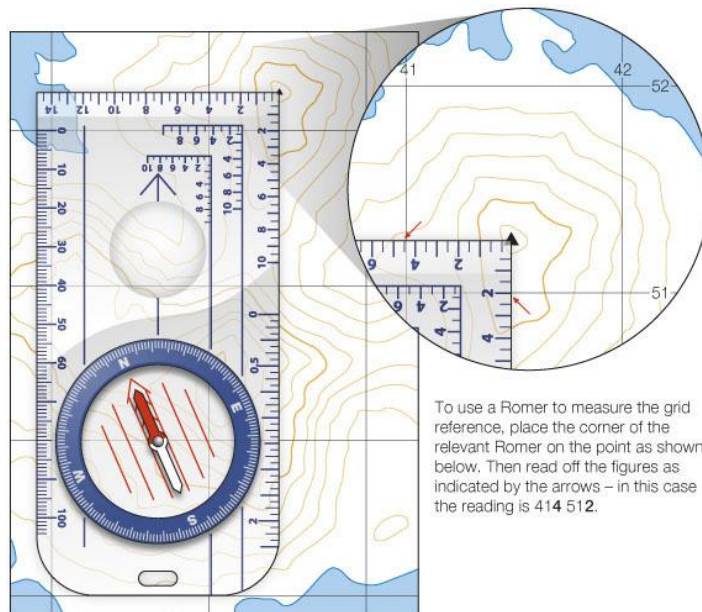

Illustration from 'Navigation in the Mountains' © MTUK/VG 2012

To use a Romer to measure the grid reference, place the corner of the relevant Romer on the point as shown below. Then read off the figures as indicated by the arrows – in this case the reading is 414 512.

Illustration from 'Navigation in the Mountains' © MTUK/VG 2012